

Essential skills development in GCSE Classical Civilisation:

This course helps develop a highly transferrable essential skillset for long term employment:

- Analytical skills: students learn to analyse literature and material evidence to craft informed arguments – essential for research and strategy
- Critical thinking & evaluation: students examine issues from multiple perspectives and question bias and inaccuracy
- Persuasive Communication: students learn how to argue viewpoints effectively and comprehensively, making complex ideas accessible
- Cultural literacy: students gain an understanding of key values and concepts which underpin wider societies across Europe and globally

What can I do after I have completed this course?

Key Stage 5:

- A-Level Classical Civilisation
- A-Level History
- A-Level Government & Politics
- A-Level Law

Higher Education:

- History Degree
- Politics
- Philosophy
- Humanities
- Law

Careers

- Museums/Heritage
- Civil Service
- Education
- Journalism
- Law
- Project Management
- Business/Finance

Subject: Classical Civilisation

